Dear Mr. Lederberg:

Ever so many thanks for yours of July 20th and the two sets of material relating to your latest statements anent biological warfare, and so on down the line. Have you by any chance seen, and I'm sure you must have, Richard McCarthy's book on the subject that we published last fall called, THE ULTIMATE FOLLY, if not, I would be only to glad to send a copy along to you. Meanwhile, I am going to send you the copy of Michael Crichton's new book, FIVE PATIENTS, which I think you will read with considerable interest.

With all best wishes, and again many thanks.

As always,
